

WrestleMania tickets are now on sale

This professional wrestling card will bring together the 'A' team of the sports and entertainment worlds.

A star-studded cast including Muhammad Ali, Billy Martin and Liberace will serve as guest officials for the highly-publicized tag-team match between World Wrestling Federation heavy-weight champion Hulk Hogan and Mr. T vs. Rowdy Roddy Piper and Paul "Mr. Wonderful" Orndorff from Madison Square Garden Sunday.

The eight-match "WrestleMania" card will be shown in our area on Cablevision of Connecticut on a pay-per-view basis to subscribers. Subscribers in the Westport system can view the eight match card on Channel 29 for a fee of $8.

The telecast will be aired live at 1 p.m. and replayed at 8.

"The response has been very good," said Cablevision's Director of Programming Paul Morton. He also added "subscribers can call for the service until Friday. We will hold the phones open until 5 p.m."

Cablevision reminds subscribers to have their box number at hand when ordering the service.

For those wishing to see Mr. T's mat debut but don't have cable service, "WrestleMania" will also be shown on closed circuit at Stamford High School.

Ticket outlets include Bob's Sports in Stamford and New Canaan, The Athlete's Foot, The American Sports Center, Bruce Park Sports in Norwalk, the Greenwich Sport Shop and at Stamford High.
